Claim of Value Statement

DECLARATION OF VALUE ASSIGNMENT TO TRUST

Date: June 08, 2025

Trust Name: The Pocket Legacy Trust

Grantor/Settlor: James Pocket

Trustee: Same as Grantor

Document Reference: CVS-001

1. Purpose of this Declaration

This declaration serves to establish and assign a quantified and narrative-based valuation of unpaid labor, intellectual work, research time, and personal debt incurred by the Grantor in service of the Trust's public benefit mission, artistic development, and legal reform research.

2. Background and Scope

Between the period of January 1, 2021 to Present, the Grantor has:

- Performed over 4,000 unpaid labor hours
- Produced and archived more than 2,000 digital assets including infographics, art, policy papers, and legislative analyses
- Incurred out-of-pocket expenses and unpaid invoicing totaling $160,000 due to the non-issuance of Form 1099-MISC by a former client
- Acquired a body of economic knowledge, legal insight, and creative materials which constitute the core holdings of the Trust

3. Assignment to Trust

Claim of Value Statement

By this document, the Grantor assigns the full experiential, intellectual, and financial value of the aforementioned work and debt to The Pocket Legacy Trust for purposes including but not limited to:

- Use in documentation of damages or restitution
- Accounting for the valuation of future intellectual property licensing
- Evidence in public claims, legislative reform, or fundraising efforts
- Internal offset of debts as capital for reinvestment into Trust-led initiatives

4. Estimated Valuation

Based on time, skill level, industry standards, and opportunity costs, the cumulative assigned value is estimated at:

$225,000 USD

(Inclusive of unpaid invoices, hours at $50/hour average, and out-of-pocket expenses for equipment, research material, and travel)

5. Declaration & Intent

I, James Pocket, hereby declare that this statement of claim is accurate to the best of my knowledge, made in good faith, and executed for the purpose of acknowledging the real value of labor and loss undertaken in the building of this Trust's mission and objectives.

I assign this value to the Trust not as a legal debt for collection, but as evidence of value already contributed, and as basis for future resource leverage, trust income allocation, and reparative recognition in potential philanthropic, academic, or economic agreements.
